Costa Del Azahar - Torreblanca - Spain

2 Bed Apt from £145,517 - 3 Bed Apt from - £178,000 - Penthouses from £177,300

The Costa del Azahar is located in the spectacular province of Valencia, a unique setting that is front line to the nature reserve 'Prat de Cabansa.' Only 200 metres from the glorious beach at Torreblanca which is one of the most popular in Castellon. There are three golf courses in the area and the new Torreblanca golf club is currently being developed. Other popular local pastimes include exploring the mountains of the Sierra de Irtza National Park, which run the length of the coast, and horse riding in Oropesa. Inland, discover the exceptional beauty of the small villages nestling in the valley of the rugged mountains of Castellon. Situated 15 minutes from the new Castellon airport (due to be opened 2007) this development offers excellent investment potential. If you're looking to buy a home in an area less developed than the Costa Blanca and Costa del Sol, but with good investment potential, stunning natural beauty with rich history and flavour all of its own, the Costa del Azahar is perfect.

469 two and three bedroom apartments and penthouses.

The development is in the Mediterranean style, featuring white facades and red brick tiled roofs. The interiors are light and spacious, and luxuriously appointed with the finest natural materials and quality finishes.
